IL BORRO

THE MEDIEVAL VILLAGE

The ancient settlement of Il Borro, 40 minutes from Viesca and dating back a thousand years, contains some small but fascinating gems. The little Church houses one of the rare, life-size colour photographs of the Shroud of Turin. The picture of the relic, taken by Giovanni Battista Cordiglia in 1985, was donated by the Savoy family (owners of the original since 1453) to Don Pasquale Mencattini, parish priest of Il Borro Church. One of the most popular attractions at Il Borro is the old Nativity Scene with its mechanical figures: a little marvel that charms both old and young alike. A cultural tour of the estate wouldn't be complete without a visit to Il Borro craftsmen's workshops, where with expertise and respect for tradition, the skilled hands of artisans have been crafting exquisite unique objects for many years.

IL BORRO CELLAR

Wine is a unique product able to merge tradition and innovation. At Il Borro, in one of Italy's most ancient cellars, where the very first "Chianti experiments" were carried out, the magic of wine making continues, combining timeless passion and dedication with the most innovative technologies. With expert guidance, you will be taken on a tour ending eight meters underground that follows each stage in the transformation of the grapes into fine wine. At its conclusion, you will then have the pleasure of savoring the results of this centuries-old history.

WINE AND ART GALLERY

1993-2023

Il Borro - An enduring act of faith

Thirty years are a good time to look back and draw the new strength to move forward. As in a scrapbook of memories, the present exhibition traces through the imaginative language of ancient engravings the path that led Ferruccio Ferragamo to shift his focus from Florence to the Valdarno countryside, finding in the medieval village of Il Borro not only a buen retiro for himself and his family but an ideal place for a new idea of enterprise. Ferruccio Ferragamo bought the Estate in 1993, bringing it back to life, enhancing its history, its memories and excellence. Today Il Borro is a place where tradition and innovation live together in an organic farm and winery, dedicated to hospitality and farm-to-table dining, but always with a look towards art and collecting. As we ideally turn the pages of this story made of images, we will discover a history of passion and authenticity.

Wine & Art Gallery presents:

Marc Chagall (1887-1985)

Giovanni Fattori (1825-1908)

James Jacques Tissot (1836-1902)

Albrecht Diirer (1471-1528)

Andy Warhol (1928-1987)
